THE CHANGING FACES OF THE CCO

When you return to school in September, you will notice a few changes in the CCO

First, we welcomed Mrs. Perna to the office as our new Office Manager! Mrs. Perna brings a great deal of positive energy, professionalism, and technological expertise to our office. Make sure you stop by to introduce yourself to Mrs. Perna upon your return to the Upper School as she will be an invaluable resource to you throughout your college search and application process.

Second, gone are the days of weaving through Mrs. Califano's office area to get to the CCO. What was once the Upper School bookstore is now Mrs. Perna's office and the CCO meeting area. Some personal office shuffling allowed enough space for every CCO counselor to have their office in the hallway behind Mrs. Perna's new space. We expect that the new office structure will provide for more convenient and better organized access to CCO materials and counselors. The meeting area also provides a consistent location for Admission Counselor Visits in the fall.
